

Rhode Island Ave

WASHINGTON, D.C. METRO

TP54

During the Bicentennial year the nation's capital inaugurated the newest rapid transit system on March 27, 1976. Initially 4.6 mi. were placed into service, from Rhode Island Ave. to Farragut North Stations. A train of Rohr built cars is shown at the Rhode Island Ave. Station on August 10, 1976.

Photo by Carl H. Sturner

STAMP

KVB9721

POST CARD

Published by Audio-Visual Designs, P.O. Box 24, Earleton, N.Y. 12058